How Rhode Island Compares

What is RIPEC?

RIPEC is an independent, nonpartisan and nonprofit public policy research and education organization dedicated to the advancement of effective, efficient and equitable government in Rhode Island.

RIPEC works for better government in two ways.

1. RIPEC publications present facts, identify problems, explore alternatives and propose actions to improve government.
2. RIPEC provides research assistance in support of public and private sector efforts to improve government.

To learn more about RIPEC, including how you can support its activities, write to:

Rhode Island Public Expenditure Council,
300 Richmond Street, Suite 200, Providence, RI
02903. You may also contact RIPEC by phone

Fiscal Year 2002 is the most recent year for which comparative state and local revenue data for the 50 states were available. No data on a state level were available for FY 2001.

Calculations were made using April 1, 2000 population estimates (Source: U.S. Census Bureau, Government Finance, FY 2002) and calendar year 2001 personal income data (Source: U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, as of May 2004).
